“May 7 through 13, 2006, is National ‘Be Kind to Animals Week,’ an observance designed to highlight the philosophy of kindness to animals. As humans, we are endowed not only with the blessing and benefits of our animal friends who give us companionship and great pleasure in our daily lives, but also with a responsibility to protect these fellow creatures from need, pain, fear and suffering.

“The residents of Los Angeles County are deeply indebted to the Department of Animal Care and Control employees and volunteers for their invaluable contribution in caring for lost and unwanted animals, instilling humane values in our children, and promoting a true working spirit of kindness and consideration for animals in the minds and hearts of all people.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried, the Board proclaimed May 7 through 13, 2006, as “Be Kind to Animals Week” throughout Los Angeles County to promote attitudes of kindness, consideration and respect for all living things.
